FR. OLIVA TO SPEAK AT USD APRIL 16

Jesuit priest and director of Companions for Justice Fr. Max Oliva will speak on "Social Justice" at the University of San Diego at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16, in Salomon Lecture Hall, DeSales Hall.

The lecture, sponsored by the USD Associated Students Speakers Bureau, is open to the public free of charge. For information, call 260-4714.

Fr. Oliva's talk concerns "the integration of faith with action for social justice and peace." He teaches how to bring about an integration of faith with practical efforts of working with the materially poor, changing unjust social structures, and educating others to do so.

Fr. Oliva is former Director of Social Ministries for the California Province of the Society of Jesus and was a facilitator for theological reflection groups at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley. He has worked in Black communities, lived and worked among the destitute in Calcutta, and at Casa de los Pobres in Tijuana.

Fr. Oliva holds masters' degrees in divinity and in business administration with an emphasis on the study of social structures.
